Rev. Wm. Macpherson,
Waterville, N.S.

February 2nd, 1914

Dear Mr. Macpherson:

I am sorry that I am not in a position to give any advice with regard to vacancies in the Presbyterian Church in Ontario. I have confined myself so closely to my own work that I have been unable to keep in touch with the condition of the Church throughout the Province. Possibly if you were to write to Rev. E. M. Macdonald, The Westminster Office, Toronto, he might be able to give you some advice. Or, possibly if you write to Rev. G. E. Ross, Goderich, who was a minister in Nova Scotia before he came here, he would be able to assist you. These are the only suggestions I have in the matter.

I hope that you will soon be free from your attack of jaundice. Would it not be wise to attempt to settle in some of the new parts of the Maritime Provinces where a change might be of service to you?

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
